Federation of Houston Professional Women Delegate Report
July 27, 2009

The Federation of Houston Professional Women (FHPW) held their third quarterly meeting on Monday, July 27, 2009. Many attended to introduce the 2009 Women of Excellence. This was the first event introducing these outstanding women who are standing strong and working together. FHPW Awards Gala Director Bee Franks-Walker, discussed the Woman of Excellence Gala. Beth Caplan commended all the honorees and asked members to take the Scholarship Winner Ticket Challenge to help the Education Foundation to the Gala Committee. Sheri L. Parrack and Myrleen P. Knott introduced each honoree and associated professional network. Each Woman of Excellence received a beautiful circle shaped large dark chocolate bar topped with a gold flower and FHPW lettering. Exuberant and enthusiastic, each Woman of Excellence won a door prize. The evening was just the beginning of the special events leading up to the 2009 Women of Excellence Gala September 19th at the Hyatt Regency Downtown. Please note this event is organized by the FHPW Advisory Council to benefit the FHPW Educational Foundation. Make your reservations today and be a part of the wonderful celebration of the 2009 Women Standing Strong – who has inspired all of us!

Pat Davion, FHPW 2009 President conducted a short formal business meeting.
